

Piotr Kosciak is a Polish pianist, laureate of numerous international piano competitions (Enschede, Munich, Linz, Zabrze and others), former student of Oleg Maisenberg and Eliso Virsaladze. Piotr received many special prizes and scholarships, such as "The Netherlands Symphony Orchestra Prize" and "Scholarship of Prime Minister of Poland". He performed in most European countries and China, recorded CDs with music by Chopin, Liszt, Haydn and Mozart. Piotr Kosciak graduated from University of Music and Performing Arts in Vienna and became the youngest board-member of International Chopin Society in Vienna, where he has been living since 2006.